A Letter from the President

Thank you for taking the time to read this short message.

Inter-Continental University is the result of many years of combined effort of many dedicated people to develop an academic program that truly meets the statement expressed by most academic institutions, that statement: “We do not discriminate against any individual regardless of sex, race, or religion.” January 19, 2004

Inter-Continental University attempts to create an opportunity for anyone that has the desire, regardless of geographical location. Many live with the obstacles of financial compatibility, and other flexibility desires such as hours to attend classes or physical limitations. Inter-Continental University is overcoming these obstacles for interested candidates. Volunteers are also available to serve as advisors for students that need additional assistance.

Many hundreds of volunteers are helping the University, and you, overcome these obstacles. Volunteers have taught and recorded courses through which the University can deliver the degree requirements by any means necessary to overcome the obstacles placed in the way of any candidate.

Inter-Continental University tuition is minimal (in fact is comparable to that of public institutions), so the courses are affordable and available to an even wider range of students who have the desire to continue their education.

Even so, Inter-Continental University is assisting students to acquire scholarships to assist in meeting the financial requirements when students are unable to attend because of the inability to pay tuition.

The University has developed a program to be delivered via distance learning to your residence. Courses are available around the world via Internet, computers, video, cassette tape, and written correspondence. The University intends to make education available and affordable anywhere the airwaves travel.

If you are in need of this opportunity, then you are able to assist the University in accomplishing its vision. Contact Inter-Continental University at our physical address, by phone, or though our Internet address.

Sincerely,

Edward N. Michaelson, Ph.D.
President

General Information

College Studies

Inter-Continental University School of College Studies offers masters, bachelor and associate degrees entirely by independent study. While the mission and objectives of Inter-Continental University remain the same for all levels, the means used by the graduate, baccalaureate and associates degree programs to achieve these purposes and objectives varies somewhat from the means used in the traditional on campus programs.

Self-made and self-educated persons may achieve each of the above objectives through self-imposed diligence, discipline, and hard work. However, the rigors of college-level study, complete with appropriate testing and evaluation, provide a standard of achievement that is easily recognized as a mark of mastery and accomplishment. The student who persists in a college-level study to the point of completing a selected degree program requirements will have a well-balanced curriculum of Bible, theology, general education, and practical or vocational skills, with intensive investigation and quality training in each area. Distance learning is not for everyone. It demands maturity, self-discipline, and persistence. It cannot, nor does it claim to, provide the opportunities of the residential campus for the younger student who is developing in social relationships and making important personal decisions. Yet, for the mature student who desires a legitimate learning experience, but is unable to take advantage of a residential college environment, distance learning provides a needed alternative.

The student clientele of Inter-Continental University consists mainly of mature adults, as well as those whose circumstances create inaccessibility to the residential campus and who must then study at a distance. Care is taken in the admissions process to make certain that distance learning is the best direction for individual students.
University Policies & Procedures

The university encourages contact between faculty and students at least every 30 days. In order to complete the course within the enrollment period, unit progress evaluations should be submitted at least every 30-45 days. While the nature of independent study provides flexibility for the student who wishes to progress at a rate that is slower or faster than the normal classroom rate, it is important to allow time for maximum absorption of concepts. It is also important to keep moving through the course to avoid having to rush at the end of the enrollment period. One week should be allowed for review at the end of the course before taking the final examination.

Transfer of Credit

Credit for work done in other colleges and universities of recognized standing will be transferred at full value where such work parallels courses required on a student’s program at Inter-Continental University. Only courses with a grade of “C” or better (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) will transfer.

Final 32 credits

In order to receive a degree from Inter-Continental University, at least the final 32 credits must be taken by enrollment in Inter-Continental University courses. These may all be taken by independent study.
Grades and Grade Point Averages

Each course is given a final grade with the number of quality points per credit hour assigned as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Significance</th>
<th>Quality Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Excellent</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<tr>

<tr>

</tbody>
</table>

A grade of “Incomplete” (I) is given to work of unacceptable quality when the full amount of required work is not submitted by the end of the enrollment period. An “I” is computed as an “F” for determining grade point average.
Financial Information

Inter-Continental University operates as a nonprofit institution. Students are charged no more than necessary to provide the appropriate educational services of distance learning. Due to changing economic conditions, the University reserves the right to revise charges as deemed necessary. However, every effort is made to keep the cost as low as possible. Inter-Continental University does not participate in federal financial aid programs.

Degree Program Fees and Tuition

Students enrolling in Inter-Continental University degree-level courses for the first time are required to pay a one-time application fee of $35.00 and $75.00 Registration fee. This fee is paid only once and covers the initial cost of establishing and maintaining a student’s file. Students transferring from the institute program to the degree program may apply the $35.00 institute application fee already paid. They are required to pay a fee registration of only $75.00. The application fee will be refunded if the student requests a cancellation of enrollment within five calendar days after midnight of the day on which the enrollment application is signed.

The tuition for degree-level courses is $100.00 per credit for undergraduate courses and $150.00 per credit per graduate courses. A 3-credit course therefore costs $300 for undergraduate work and $450 for graduate in tuition. Required textbooks and/or instructional materials are not included in the tuition rate. All tuition and fees must be paid before orders for instructional materials can be processed.

Deferred Credit Policy

Inter-Continental University offers a deferred credit option for those who wish to study on the college level, but do not wish to pursue a degree. Students pay 50% of the tuition costs and receive the same materials and services, as do students who are studying for credit. They must complete all assignments and examinations; however, no college credit is granted. Grades are recorded on a student record with a “P+ Grade” to indicate that the course was a deferred credit. A diploma will be issued along with a copy of their recorded grades. These courses may later be converted to credit status. This is done by paying the remaining 50% of the tuition (at the current rate), at which time the grade will be recorded on a university transcript.

Ministerial Discount

Ministerial candidates who are taking degree-level courses to prepare for credentials with an approved affiliate are given a discount of approximately 10% on tuition only (currently $90 per credit). Verification from the affiliate that these individuals are ministerial candidates is required. The charge for textbooks, study guides, and other materials is the same as for other enrolled students.

Ministerial Candidates

Ministerial candidates who do not desire college credit, but are requested to do degree-level work to prepare for credentials, may choose the Deferred Credit option for the college courses. The charge for this will be one-half the ministerial candidate tuition charge or $50.00 per credit plus the cost of materials. This fee includes all student services including the degree-level final examination. Discount does not apply in conjunction with any other discounts or scholarships.

When a student completes a course on a deferred credit basis (see above), the grade is assigned and recorded on a transcript by which affiliates are notified of completed ministerial candidacy course work. A “P+ Grade” beside the grade indicates that the course was taken under the degree-level Deferred Credit policy. No university transcript is activated, since the student has not indicated a desire to secure college credit. In the event a student who completes a college course by deferred credit desires to receive college credit at a later date, he must complete the college application, pay a $35. Application fee and $75 registration fee, and the differential tuition.
Senior Citizens’ Discount

A 10% discount (on tuition only) will be provided, when requested, for every student enrolling in an undergraduate degree program after his or her 55\textsuperscript{th} birthday. These discounts are applicable to undergraduate college and institute courses only (not graduate courses). They cannot be used in conjunction with any other discount.

Family Member Discount

When a spouse or other member of the immediate family residing at the same household enrolls simultaneously in the same degree-program, a 10% discount off the tuition price will be granted upon request. This discount is not applicable to counseling courses provided by LIFEBUILDERS Ministries or in conjunction with any other discount. If two members of the same family are taking different degree programs or do not take the degree programs at the same time, the discount would apply only to the second family member. The discount does not apply to deferred credit courses, but would apply to the upgrade of Deferred Credit to credit at a later time.
Alternative Credit Options

Credit-by-examination

Inter-Continental University treats national standardized tests such as the College Level Placement Exams (CLEP) as transfer credit. Credit is allowed only for courses that may be applied to the General Education or General Elective areas. Credit is granted for subjects in which a student scores at the 50th percentile or higher.

If a student believes that he has already mastered the content of an Inter-Continental University course, he may request to take the proctored final examination as a “Challenge Exam.” This credit-by-examination is a means of earning college credit. A satisfactory grade on the properly administered final examination shall by itself be considered sufficient demonstration of mastery and justifiable reason for granting appropriate college credit. A grade of “C” or better is required to receive credit-by-examination.

A student may earn up to 32 credits toward a BA or 16 credits toward an AA through this recognized collegiate practice for validating equivalent college-level learning. Credit obtained in this way may not substitute for the final 32 hours of credit required to be taken by enrollment in Inter-Continental University degree programs. The charge for earning credit by a challenge examination is the regular tuition charge. The same policies regarding the proctor selection, etc. applies to this exam as for all other degree finals.

Military Personnel

The DANTES Subject Standardized Tests (DSST) is a program administered by Educational Testing Services (ETS) in conjunction with DANTES. The examinations are available only to military personnel. All military educational experiences will be evaluated for college credit according to the recommendations of the Guide to the Educational Experiences in the Armed Services.
Prior Learning

Many accredited academic institutions are now making provision for students to gain college credit for skills and knowledge gained outside the college classroom.

Some of the life experiences which are now being recognized as legitimate learning activities are on-the-job learning, non-credit post-secondary programs, significant volunteer social work, executive leadership, and other experiences that parallel academic study programs, as well as general knowledge gained through life experiences.

Inter-Continental University believes that students who are experienced in a phase of ministry, or who have mastered such areas of knowledge as specific portions of the Bible, certain theological truths, or general knowledge, should be allowed to prove such mastery and gain advanced standing in their degree programs. This plan for the granting of credit for prior learning applies only to the degree program, not to the institute program. If a student’s knowledge in a specific subject area is similar to that described in the catalog for an Inter-Continental University course and that learning can be documented. The student may submit a Petition for College Credit, giving the detailed information as requested.

When the petition and supporting documentation are received, they will be reviewed by the Admissions and Advanced Standing Committee, which will:

1. Evaluate the applicability of the student’s life experience and training to the specifically related course work,
2. Determine the equivalent credit which can be granted,
3. Propose a degree plan listing the remaining course work required for the degree.

Through this process, the student may earn up to 32 credits or 25% of the 120 credits required for the BA degree (16 credits toward the 60 required for an AA). No fee is charged for the evaluation of a student’s credit-for-prior-learning portfolio however, you must be a registered student to take advantage of this opportunity.
A credit-for-prior-learning tuition fee of $100 per credit will be charged for credit gained in this manner. The student will be notified of the action of the Committee.

Credit for Prior Learning may not substitute for the 32 hours of credit required to be taken through direct enrollment in Inter-Continental University courses. Strict guidelines must be followed in this process in order to safeguard the academic integrity of the University and to maintain the standards required by the accrediting association. Write to Inter-Continental University for a credit-for-prior-learning packet, providing full details for submitting the required portfolio.

All the truth of God that is later developed or revealed exists in germ form in the book of Genesis. As demonstrated in Exodus, Jehovah God is a God who knows the condition of his people, who comes down to deliver, who redeems by blood and power, who supplies every need, who gives victory, who reveals His holy character, and who dwells among his people. In Leviticus God revealed laws to prepare and to secure the physical, moral, and spiritual well-being of the people. Numbers can be summed up in three words: wilderness, warfare, and wandering. In Deuteronomy, Moses reminds the people of the law and their call to holiness before God.

Carl Armendering states that the Lord promised Joshua that just as He had been with Moses so He would be with him. There was only one condition which Joshua had to meet. He was to obey the word of God without deviation. Judges covers 300 years of history from Joshua’s death to the death of Samson, the last of 13 “Judges” sent by God to deliver His people. As quoted by J. Vernon McGee, “The book of Ruth is a love story.” This little book gives to us a picture of the wonderful relationship that exists between Christ and his church.
The Kingdom Period

Lectures 1 to 4 – I & II Samuel and I & II Kings     Harold B. Kuhn, Ph.D.
Lecture 5 – I & II Chronicles     Gleason Archer, Jr., Ph.D.

I and II Samuel comes out of the golden age of Hebrew literature and has four key players in this great drama – Eli, Samuel, Saul, and David. You’ll see how the Lord is constant and faithful in this period of transition as Israel becomes a monarchy. I and II Kings is the continuing account of the origin, the rise and the development of the monarchy of Israel. Gleason Archer Jr. says, “Whereas Kings is dominated by a prophetic interest, I and II Chronicles is characterized by a more definitive priestly point of view.” The purpose was that the true greatness of Israel consists in her relationship to Jehovah as a worshipping faithful and obedient congregation.

The Post Exilic Period

Lectures 1, 2 – Ezra and Nehemiah     John Walvoord, Th.D.
Lecture 3 – Esther     Carl Armendering, D.D.

Ezra is the historical record of the first return of the captives to the land of Palestine. There under the prophetic leadership of Haggai and Zechariah, they would rebuild the temple. Nehemiah is a stirring record of how one man impelled by God accomplished what everyone had said was impossible – he rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem. God placed Esther, an Israelite, as the new queen to accomplish hi gracious purposes. She would be used by God to thwart the plan of the evil Haman, who had tricked the king into passing a law that would kill Esther’s people.
Old Testament Literature

Lectures 1,2 – Job
Daniel Fuller, Jr., Th.D.
Lectures 3,4 – Psalms and Proverbs
V. Raymond Edmond, Ph.D.
Lectures 5,6 – Ecclesiastes & Song of Solomon
Gleason Archer Jr., Ph.D.
Lecture 7 – Lamentations
Williams S. LaSor, Ph.D.

The book of Job is God’s answer to “Why should the righteous suffer?” The Psalms are the finest expression of human devotion and delight in the Almighty God. To read the Proverbs is to be ready for life. To believe them is to be safe from the snares in life’s pathway. Ecclesiastes recognizes God Himself as the highest value in His creation, and that the truly meaningful life is the life lived in His service. Song of Solomon represents an actual occurrence in Solomon’s life in which he experienced a pure and holy love. Lamentations is a sequel to the prophecy of Jeremiah. This hymn of intense sorrow shows men inspired by God’s spirit as they seek to reach up to Him.

The Major Prophets

Lectures 1,2 – Isaiah
Arnold C. Schultz, Th.D.
Lectures 3,4 – Jeremiah
William S. LaSor, Ph.D.
Lectures 5,6 – Ezekiel
Arthur B. Whiting, Th.D.
Lectures 7,8 – Daniel
Carl Armerding, D.D.

Isaiah prophesied in Judah during the reigns of four kings and during great crises. Expect to find practically every aspect of biblical truth. Jeremiah’s duty was to proclaim the judgment of the Lord and to advise the king and the people to submit to the enemy. Ezekiel was one of the three prophets of the period of the captivity. Here is a book that combines sobering history and stirring prophecy. Daniel deals with three significant interpretations of dreams, and visions about the future. Daniel shows a God of precision and power, a God active and involved in history.
The Minor Prophets

Lectures 1 to 4 – Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah /Frank Baebelein, Litt.D.
Lectures 5,6 – Jonah and Micah V. Raymond Edman, Ph.D.
Lectures 7,8 – Nahum and Habakkuk Frank Gaebelein, Litt.D.
Lectures 9,10 – Zephaniah and Haggai Frank Gaebelein, Litt.D.
Lectures 11,12 – Zechariah and Malachi Gleason Archer Jr., Ph.D.

Hosea means “salvation.” He married an unfaithful wife whom he forgave and redeemed. Joel introduces the great prophetic concept of “The Day of the Lord” and gives us the prophecy about the Holy Spirit. Amos means “bearer of a burden.” He proclaimed the coming destruction of neighboring nations, Israel, and Judah. In Obadiah, prideful Edom hated Israel and their doom was predicted. God calls Jonah to preach repentance to the people of Ninevah, the hated and evil Assyrians. Micah, preached God’s judgment on Samaria and Jerusalem due to their idolatry. Nahum predicts the doom of Ninevah, 150 years after Jonah. Habakkuk dialogues with God and receives a vision of the pending woes to come from the Babylonians. Zephaniah spoke of the great day of the Lord that was to come to all nations and calls Jerusalem to repent. Haggai returned after the captivity, and laid the foundation of the temple in Jerusalem. Zechariah also returned to encourage the rebuilding of the temple. He prophesied how Jesus would deliver Israel, be rejected, and return again. Malachi brought God’s people a message of rebuke and promise.
The Gospels

Lectures 1,2 – Matthew J. Vernon McGee, Th.D.
Lectures 3,4 – Mark Walter Wilson, M.D.
Lectures 5,6 – Luke Harold J. Ockenga, Ph.D.
Lectures 7,8 – John Merrill Tenney, Ph.D.

The gospel of Matthew brings before us “The Kingdom of Heaven,” or the rule of the Heavens over this earth. You will find Jesus presented as King, the one who fulfills Scripture, the Messiah. Of the increase of His kingdom there shall be no end! Mark presents the Lord Jesus Christ as the servant of God and the servant of men. Mark records the call from Christ to followers who would serve Him, and the command of Christ to go and preach. Luke portrays Jesus as the perfect man and uses the term “Son of Man.” Luke also shows that Jesus is not only a perfect human but the divine Son of God. The key verse of this gospel written by John is found in John 20:31. “But these are written, that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you might have life through His name.” And this is eternal life, that you might know Him, the only true God, Jesus Christ.

Acts and Epistles, Section 1

Lectures 1,2 – Acts Charles Anderson, D.D.
Lectures 3,4 – Romans Howard W. Ferrin, LL.D.
Lectures 5,6 – I Corinthians John Walvoord, Th.D.
Lectures 7,8 – II Corinthians L.E. Maxwell

The book of Acts is chiefly the chronicle of the mighty missionary advance of the early church in its obedience to the commands of the risen Savior. It shows the true motive of missions, the best plans, and the secret source of power for the task. This doctrinal book of Romans states the basic principle of “justification by faith.” “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek, for therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith.” I Corinthians teaches Christian conduct in a wicked world with specific attention to the corruption that had crept into the church in Corinth. Paul writes of marriage and relationships, abiding in one’s call, the celebration of the Lord’s Supper, spiritual gifts, the resurrection of Christ from the dead and much more. In II Corinthians Paul defends his ministry as there were many in the church at Corinth still attacking his credibility. He is forced painfully to vindicate his apostolic authority.
Epistles, Section 2

Lectures 1,2 – Galatians and Ephesians
Lectures 3,4 – Philippians and Colossians
Lectures 5,6 – I & II Thessalonians
Lectures 7,8 – I & II Timothy

Galatians is the declaration of the glorious freedom which Jesus has won for all believers. It defends the truth of justification by faith alone, which imparts to us incredible freedom in Jesus. Ephesians unfolds God’s wonderful workmanship in fashioning a new and invisible spiritual organism designed as the body of Christ. It stresses true church unity.

The purpose of Philippians is to give thanks to the believers at Philippi for a gift that they sent to Paul, and to correct friction that existed there. Paul gives words concerning Christ as the believer’s life, pattern, object, and strength. Colossians discloses the fact that Jesus Christ is the head of the body which is the church, and emphasizes that it is in Him that all the fullness of the Godhead dwells. I & II Thessalonians contain a rich presentation of the truth of God designed for young believers. Paul writes about thanksgiving to God, the secret of effective Christian service, the believer’s sanctification, and the coming of the Lord. Some believed that they were already in the tribulations of the day of the Lord. Paul corrects this misapprehension and encourages them to go on with the Lord. I & II Timothy are addressed to men who have the responsibility for the administration of local assemblies. These letters reveal God’s will regarding doctrine, church administration, and discipline.
Epistles, Section 3

Lectures 8,9 - I,II & III
John William H. Wrighton, LL.D
Lecture 10 – Jude
S. Maxwell Coder, D.D.
Lectures 11,12 – Revelation
Merrill Tenney, Ph.D.

Paul put Titus in charge of the church in Crete and gave him this letter of instruction on how to do the work there.

The letter to Philemon from Paul asked him to take back his runaway slave, Onesimus, who had met Paul and was converted to Christ. The author of Hebrews wrote in order to encourage and energize the Christian readers into a viable and active faith in Jesus. It appears they had begun to lose heart and were in danger of allowing unbelief to grow. James is a book that speaks of works. It teaches that we are saved by faith only, but saving faith never is alone. It is always accompanied by good works.

I Peter’s purpose is to strengthen and comfort those believers who are called upon to bear severe testing as a trial of their faith. II Peter warns against church leaders allowing sin in the church for the sake of monetary gain. Sin will bring blindness, and they will no longer look for the Lord. I,II, and III John speak about fellowship, to not belittle the deity of Jesus, to live righteously by faith, to love one another, to resist false last days and the conditions before the apocalyptic judgments fall. It brings to a climax all the teaching regarding apostasy. Revelation as a book of prophecy contains descriptions of unique animals, angels, demons, beasts, harlots, and brides. Christ is the central figure as it talks of the ages.

“Blessed is he that reads it and they that hear it and keeps those things that are written therein.”

The Birth of Jesus, Jesus is the most outstanding person in all of history, and indeed is the central figure of all time. Everett Harrison discusses the circumstances, important factors, and prophecy surrounding His birth. His Early Life. We only have a glimpse of Jesus’ boyhood and early life. Enough is told to enable us to know that as a child Jesus had a normal life. His Temptation. Jesus could not begin to do the work the Father God had commissioned Him to do until He had passed this severe test. His Early Ministry in Judea and Galilee. Within a few months Jesus had labored in the city of Jerusalem, in Samaria, and Galilee. He covered all the main areas of Palestine at this early stage in His ministry. His Teachings and Miracles. What are the basic teachings of Jesus? What spiritual legacy has He left for us? Never a man spoke like this man. The training of the Twelve Disciples. The command of the Lord is, “Follow Me!” The future of Christianity and God’s plan lay with twelve men chosen by Jesus. Moving Toward Calvary. Lazarus is dramatically raised from the dead by Jesus. He then turns to focus toward Jerusalem while evil men began to plan His destruction. He was the people’s champion as He entered the great city. The Upper Room Discourse. Jesus called His disciples together to a private place to eat the famous last supper. He washes their feet, teaches them the Lord’s Supper, tells of the Holy Spirit to come, says farewell, and goes to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray and wait. His Trial and Death. Jesus stood before the leaders of his own nation, and before the Romans, and then they crucified Him. His Resurrection and Ascension. Every tear of sadness at His death is drowned out by the shouts of joy at His resurrection. Jesus is alive!

What does “prophet” mean in the Word of God? What is the extent of prophecy in the Old and New Testaments? There are 13 or 14 major areas upon which the light of the prophetic word falls. Those predictions beginning in Genesis through to the New Testament concerning the history and ultimate destiny of the Hebrew People are called Hebraic prophecies. The prophecies about the coming Lord Jesus are by far the most important in all literature. The book of Daniel is the only panoramic survey of the great empires of the world down to the end of the age. It has chronological prophecy indicating the coming of the Lord. Jesus talked prophetically concerning himself, the church, the Jews and the fall of Jerusalem, the course of the age, the end of the age, and of judgment to come. On the Mount of Olives during Holy Week, Jesus delivered His last pronouncement to the public in general. It is recorded in Matthew 24-24, Mark 13, and Luke 21. In this last discourse Jesus prophesies on the time before, during and after the Tribulation. I Corinthians 15 talks about the Resurrection. Is there certainty in the resurrection of Jesus? What is its importance? Who is the Antichrist, the supreme enemy of God? What will be his work? What are his characteristics? Who are the two beasts that come against God? We need the final book of triumph and victory, Revelation. It is a book of conflict, of light over darkness, between the powers of evil and Satan and Hell against the power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The big questions concerning evangelism are answered within these lectures. Also misunderstandings and apprehensions are cleared through these insightful chapters, including “Am I good enough?” and how to approach people who have no interest in religion. The study also walks the student through the recipient’s possible excuses and possible responses to that person. The student is encouraged through this study to practice evangelism, bring people to a relationship with Christ, and to encourage nurture new believers and help them become more mature.

The beginning of the Apostolic church through persecution, imperialism, crusades, reformations, to the modern church. Trace the development of the church through better and worse, richer and poorer. Wealth and wars played their part in the creation of the church we experience today. The course also gives the student a feel for the origin of different theological viewpoints and controversies within the church.
Galatians and Philippians

Lectures by Donald Barnhouse, Th.D.

Galatians

Lecture 1 The Magna Carta of Christian Liberty
Lecture 2 Paul’s Teaching Source
Lecture 3 Paul’s Source of Doctrine
Lecture 4 Justification by Faith
Lecture 5 The Covenant of God
Lecture 6 Maturity Demands Faith
Lecture 7 Christian Liberty
Lecture 8 The Law of Love

Galatians has a greater effect on us today than any constitution of freedom given to any group of people. Paul establishes his source for doctrine and confronts those who preach anything other than justification by faith. Paul also assures us of our standing with God and gives practical advice for carrying on with daily life.

Philippians

Lectures by V. Raymond Edman, Ph.D.

Lecture 9 Paul’s Abiding Joy
Lecture 10 The Mind of Christ
Lecture 11 God’s High Calling
Lecture 12 Justification by Faith

From beginning to end, Paul speaks of joy and confidence and affection for his fellow Christians. From prison, Paul teaches the church at Philippi about a source of joy that overflows irrespective of circumstances and the joy of humility.
